AND

THE INSTITUTE OF ASIAN AND ORIENTAL STUDIES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TÜBINGEN

In order to further strengthen the cooperation between the two universities we hereby agree to establish the following reciprocal student exchange programme based upon principles of mutual benefit:

1. Each year, during the term of this Addendum, one university may send up to six students, either undergraduate or graduate, to be enrolled at the other university. It is understood that a balance in the number of students exchanged shall be sought over a five year period.
2. Students will be selected by their home university on the basis of academic merit and suitability for study at the host university. The names and details of the students shall be submitted to the host university beforehand for approval. The host university reserves the right to reject candidates, in which case additional candidates may be proposed.
3. Exchange students shall be enrolled as non-degree students at the host university with credit to be transferred back to the home university. The duration of the students' stay shall be one academic year at the most. Transcripts will be provided to the home university.
4. Exchange students shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the host university and country. They will also have the rights and privileges enjoyed by all students of the host university.
5. Exchange students shall be entitled to participate in any pre-academic courses or programmes that are arranged for foreign students at the host university
6. Exchange students shall pay the tuition fees required of them by their home university in order to participate in the programme and shall be exempt from paying tuition and academic fees to the host university. Students will pay the social service contribution directly to Student Services or organizations of the university at which they are enrolled. At the University of Tuebingen, students have to pay semester fees consisting of Student Services and administrative fees. Students at Berhampur University will have to pay as semester fee of the concerned year.

Students selected shall satisfy the home university that they have adequate funds for transport (to and from the home university) and for subsistence during their stay.
8. This Addendum shall become effective on the date of signing for five years and extended for the same period upon tacit consent unless one or both parties express their desire to terminate it. This agreement may be terminated by either party at any time provided that the terminating party gives a minimum of 6 months notice in writing.

The undersigned agree to this addendum on behalf of their respective university.
